C[illegible]
HUMORS OF THE SCALP.
LOSS OF HAIR.

Loss of Hair in thousands of cases is due entirely to some form of Scalp disease. [illegible] by a judicious use of CUTICURA, assisted by Cuticura Soap. It is the most agreeable as well as the most effective hair restorer and producer ever [illegible] the world. All [illegible] poisonous dyes. None but CUTICURA possesses the specific medicinal properties that enable it to cure all itching and scaly diseases that inflame and irritate the scalp and hair glands and tubes, causing premature baldness. Medium doses of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT will purify the oil and sweat glands of the virus of scrofulous humor of the blood and insure a permanent cure, when taken in connection with the outward application of CUTICURA.

SALT RHEUM AND DANDRUFF
Cured that several physicians had failed to treat successfully.

Messrs. Weeks & Potter: Gentlemen—I have had the Salt Rheum on my hand and all through my hair, also on my legs, for the past four years, having suffered exceedingly with it. The dandruff falling from my hair was very annoying. I consulted several different physicians in regard to it, and have taken their prescriptions as ordered, but did not find any cure and but little relief. I was told by many persons who have the Salt Rheum, and who have been doctored for years, that there was no cure for it; that it was in the blood, and I should always have it, and I was almost inclined to agree with them, but a friend wanted me to try CUTICURA, made by your firm. I did, and to my astonishment, in less than three weeks, my hand was entirely free from all Salt Rheum and Dandruff, and I cannot see any appearance of Salt Rheum on my person. I think it a wonderful remedy.
Respectfully yours,
GEORGE A. MUDGE.
Portsmouth, N. H., Feb. 6th, 1879.

HUMOR OF THE SCALP
That was Destroying the Hair Cured with one box of CUTICURA.

Messrs. Weeks & Potter: Gentlemen—I want to tell you what CUTICURA has done for me. About ten years ago my hair began falling out, caused by Humor of the Scalp. I tried various remedies, too numerous to mention, without relief, until I began using CUTICURA, one box of which has entirely cured me and new hair is beginning to grow.

Yours truly,
H. A. RAYMOND,
Auditor Fort Wayne, Jackson & Saginaw R. R.

ARE AS OLD AS MANKIND.

LIVING, BREATHING, SUFFERING BAROMETERS.

In the Knees, Feet, Shoulders,

ALL SPEAKING WITH TONGUES OF STEEL.

Saying, There is Coming a Change in the Weather, I Feel it In My Bones.

BAROMETERS SHOULD HANG ON WALLS AND NOT IN HUMAN NERVES AND BONES.

I WILL TELL YOU WHAT WILL REMOVE EVERY NERVE AND BONE BAROMETER, AND TAKE OUT THE LIMPS AND STIFFNESS. IT IS A SIMPLE THING, BUT NO LESS EFFICACIOUS THAN SIMPLE. IT IS DR. BENSON'S CELERY AND CHAMOMILE PILLS.

They have been tested time and time again, and always with satisfactory results. This preparation just meets the necessities of the case. These diseases are all nervous diseases. Let me say just what my pills are made to cure and what they have and will cure: Neuralgia, Nervousness, Sick Headache, Nervous Headache, Dyspeptic Headache, Sleeplessness, Paralysis and Indigestion. Nervousness embraces nervous weakness, irritation, despondency, melancholy, and a restless, dissatisfied, miserable state of mind and body indescribable. These are some of the symptoms of Nervousness. Now, to be fully restored to health and happiness is a priceless boon, and yet for fifty cents you can satisfy yourself that there is a cure for you, and for $5 at the very farthest that cure can be fully secured. STATE NEWS.

Androscoggin.

The Androscoggin Poultry Association, at a meeting held Friday evening voted not to hold an exhibition this winter.

Post Master Little of Lewiston, has received a large and new safe for his office, with a fine oil painting of Lewiston Falls on the outside.

Cumberland.

Mr. J. Everts has commenced to deliver to subscribers the "History of Cumberland County." The volume is magnificently gotten up and cannot fail to give entire satisfaction.

Mrs. Bond of Portland, said to be a direct descendant of William IV., has been consulting the early records of Greenland and Rye, N. H., to find the genealogy of the Weber, Spencer and Bowe families, as it is alleged that some thirty or forty millions worth of property will come into their possession if their genealogies can be perfectly traced. Quite a mine of information was gleaned from the above records.

A young man, P. O'Brien, of Portland fell into a cistern, and the walls of the cistern being smooth was unable to get out. A dog heard his cries and held him up till his shouts for help attracted the attention of his friends who came to the rescue.

Mrs. Sharrer, of Portland, wife of the man who was so severely injured by falling between the New York steamer and Franklin wharf a few days ago, met with an accident Monday by which her feet were terribly scalded.

Mr. William Batty, employed at the Portland Company, got caught in the machinery Monday and had one of his legs badly injured.

Last Saturday a house in Portland, in which Mrs. Eastman and her daughter have apartments, came near being burned. Miss Grace Eastman built a hot coal fire and left it for a short time. There was no zinc beneath the stove, and in a few minutes the carpet took fire and filled the room with smoke. The neighbors extinguished the flames.

The Boston Journal says the United States gunboat, Swatara, which has been ordered to the Asiatic squadron, and is now lying in Boston harbor, has been detained in order to run down to Portland and protect public property in case of an outbreak.

Franklin.

Clifford Belcher died in Boston last week. Mr. Belcher was born in Farmington, Me., in 1819. He graduated at Harvard college in 1839, and practiced law in Louisiana until 1873, when failing health compelled him to relinquish business. A few months ago, suffering with a complication of diseases, he visited Boston for the purpose of availing himself of the best medical treatment, but without avail. During his last illness he had the constant attendance of his brothers and other relatives. He was buried in the family burial lot in Farmington, Me. Mr. Belcher was a man of culture and literary tastes. Though much engrossed in the cares of business, he found time to cultivate the humanities and was a sound lawyer and an accomplished scholar. He was never married. Of his immediate relatives, three brothers and one sister survive.

Oxford.

Large quantities of poplar are being hauled in to the tooth pick factory at Mexico. They are paying as high as [illegible] per cord for first grade, and [illegible] for second grade.

One day last week, Mr. Horace Starbird of West Paris, met with an accident in the [illegible] mill. He got his hand caught in a saw upon which he was operating, cutting off one finger on his left hand and badly mangling others.

Washington.

Last week John Hathaway lost three fingers from his right hand by coming in contact with a saw in Fuller & Allen's mill at Columbia Falls.

Charles, son of John Mallar, of Machias, was killed while at work in the woods in Minnesota, the first of this month, by a log rolling on to him.

Donald, son of E. B. Harvey, Esq., of Calais, a Sophomore in Amherst College, has recently been awarded a fifty dollar gold medal for best recitations and examinations in Physiology.

Scott & [illegible], butchers, of Machias inform us that they have slaughtered, this season, [illegible] hogs, weighing in the aggregate [illegible] pounds. There have been a few hogs slaughtered by other parties, so that at least [illegible] pounds of pork was raised in Machias in 1879.

[illegible]

... change was brought about through the influence and advice of A. P. Gould but the Fusion Senate could not be influenced. A caucus was held and Gould expounded ... that the Supreme Court had given a decision based on an assumption of facts and affirmed that they had ... In his opinion the Fusion Legislature had been legally organized and ... The Fusionists ... went into secret session and after debating the matter they seemed more determined than ever to vote to-morrow to submit the questions of their admission to the Court.

During the debate in the bogus House Walsh of Biddeford, who favors the propounding of questions to the Court gave the counted-in members a slap by saying that he did not care for their opinion. The four Fusion members who took their seats yesterday in the Republican House occupied seats to-day in the bogus House. Two of them, Bonney of Waldoboro, and Rafter of Damariscotta, say they were not in the Republican House yesterday but were in Gardiner. The Fusionists say that Hill of Corinth, and Mullen of [illegible], who took their seats in the Republican House went there as a corps of observation and not to stay. Hill himself says he intends to stand by the Fusion caucus. He and Dr. Bradbury of Norway, talked red hot to-day.

The Fusion Secretary of State, Sawyer, has the State seal as it is reported in his possession and intends to hold it until his official title is legalized by the Court. He and Major Folsom went over to Lewiston to-day to confer with Governor Garcelon and other leading Fusionists and it is reported here that the result of their visit may be to secure the [illegible] of an Irish military company [illegible] Governor Garcelon furnished with guns belonging to the State, [illegible] had been taken from them by order of Governor Davis. [illegible] here that Major Folsom was going to try and recover possession of the guns and march the company over here. It was [illegible] this report or something else of a similar character that caused orders to be sent to the Capital Guards in this city and the Auburn Light Infantry late in the afternoon to repair to their armories as soon as they did.

[illegible]

Hill of Corinth, said he was one of those unfortunates [illegible]

Bradbury of Norway said he was one of the unfortunate, miserable devils 'counted in,' but if an honest vote could have been had he would have been elected. This House has a wonderfully large amount of moral influence behind it, and we must use it to sustain ourselves in our position. The right to speak and think had been taken from him. Will you send us back to our homes with stripes on our backs and branded [illegible]? Votes were purchased at his door at from five to ten dollars apiece; money flowed freely as water. He said Mr. [illegible], a minister in his town, was driven from his pulpit for expressing his opinion.

Lang of Fort Fairfield, believed that they are right. If we submit questions to the Court now, they decide against us what shall we lose? If it is in our favor we have gained all.

Dilley of Fort Kent, was in favor of submitting to the Court. If they decide against us it will help us before the people.

At 3.30 "both branches" assembled in "joint convention" and administered the oath of office to John B. Redman of Ellsworth, as Councillor-elect. There being no blank form which to administer the oath one was written out. In "the Senate," no business was transacted. Adjourned to four o'clock.

LOCAL MATTERS.

[illegible] inches of snow fell [illegible]

The storm Tuesday night was the worst of the season.

[illegible]

[illegible] Republican flag bearing the name D. F. Davis, was flung to the breeze. Republicans are jubilant.

[illegible] Marine Insurance Company [illegible] held their annual meeting yesterday afternoon, [illegible] of the stock being represented. The proposition that the by-laws of the Company be so changed, that at the annual election of Directors, at least [illegible] of the nine shall be [illegible] who have not been Directors for the two years past, was indefinitely postponed. In ballot for Director [illegible] Mr. John B. Foster, the following list being unanimously chosen: A. D. Thurston, Wm. T. Pearson, Isaac M. Bragg, Moses Giddings, A. D. Manson, John L. Cutler, L. M. Partridge, Newell Blake, J. [illegible] Fiske. At a subsequent meeting Moses Giddings was elected President, and John F. Kimball, Secretary.

THE STORM. The snow storm which set in Tuesday night and continued until about noon yesterday was the worst [illegible] of the season. The wind blew hard [illegible] of the time and the snow drifted, badly blocking the roads so that the stages were all late and some of them failed to reach the city at all. The Pullman train did not reach here until nearly ten o'clock the morning and as the St. John train did not wait, the passengers going east were all obliged to remain in the city until this morning. The storm was exceedingly severe along the line of the E. & N. A. Railway and the evening train from St. John did not arrive until about one o'clock this morning. [illegible] hours of this delay was caused by a freight train running off the track.
